Thanks Are Offered. The snowfall that came to Southside Virginia on Friday, the 13th, was a good thing in many ways. Of course, there are people who see all kinds of horrors in snow, but there are others who think and know that a four-lneh snowfall is a good thing for crops and other things, wells that have gone dry, for instance. Another good thing the snow brought about was the diminution of automobile traffic on Main and Broad Streets, for which let us all offer thanks.

How They Grow.

Just to show how young men who have some of the right kind of stuff in them can grow in Richmond, the story of the life and career of Raleigh W. Dodson has in it a lot of hints and suggestions. This young man, like most of the good young men who are shaping the destiny of Richmond and Virginia, started his life in the backwoods. In September, 1881, he first saw the light of day in Pittsylvania County, where many men of his name and kind did much to make that old county famous in history. When he was about twenty years of age he came to Richmond, and after taking a course in a local business college secured a position as stenographer in the officer of the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company. Three years later he was appointed agency cashier for that company. This position he held for nine years and resigned recently to accept the general agency of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, with headquarters at 707 Mutual Building. Thus the Virginia boys who have the stuff in them grow.

Chatham, Va., February 14.—Tobacco sales on the local market this week have been much better than last week, and prices very good. The recent rain resulted in a very good season, and it is believed that a very small per cent of the crop is left in the farmers' hands.
